Rebecca Woollin

Rebecca has been involved in numerous projects across various sectors including residential, commercial and industrial developments.

She has been involved in the preparation of Transport Assessments, Technical Notes and Travel Plans, as well as liaising with clients and Local Highways Authorities. Rebecca has experience handling data and using softwares such as TRICS and QGIS.

Rebecca is particularly interested in the intersection between transport planning and sustainability, including encouraging the uptake of sustainable transport methods and working on projects that aim to achieve BREEAM credits.

In her spare time, Rebecca enjoys playing football. She is also a season ticket holder at Leeds United.
