Matthew's responsibilities range from project leading, negotiations with LPA's, report writing and modelling/design work using software such as Junctions 9 and AutoCAD.

Matthew has worked at mode since graduating from Reading University, in that time Matthew has worked in mode's Oxford (now Reading) and London offices.

Outside of work, Matthew enjoys playing football both recreationally and in a 5-a-side league. When he has a chance to spend time outside of London Matthew spends time fishing and helping out on the family farm.
